Your on the dark side of the moon

Your hiding out for help lost in your cradle

(Refrain) Bm - D - A - E

I wonder why you ran away

You couldn't stand those rainy days

I wonder why you had to go and get busted for blow down in Mexico

I still count you as my friend

I curled finger on my hand

I wonder why you had to go and get caught with that blown down in Mexico

Your daughter is going on seventeen

And she's riding the machine

To me she's still little Mari-Jo

G E

So bad, you had to risk it all...

I wonder why you ran away

You couldn't stand those rainy days

I wonder why you had to go and get busted for blow down in Mexico
