

The Logical Song, performed by Supertramp

Cm G# Gm

When I was young, it seemed that life was so wonderful,

Bb G# A°

a miracle, oh it was beautiful, magical.

Cm G# Gm

And all the birds in the trees, well they'd be singing so happily,

Bb G# A°

Oh, joyfully, oh, playfully, watching me.

Cm G# Gm

But then they sent me away, to teach me how to be sensible,

Bb G# A°

logical, oh, responsible practical.

Cm G# Gm

And they showed me a world where I could be so dependable,

Bb G# A°

oh, clinical, oh, intellectual, cynical.

Eb Eb7+

There are times when all the world's asleep,

Eb7 C# Fm Bbm G#

the questions run too deep for such a simple man

Eb Eb7+

Won't you please, please tell me what we've learned?

Eb7 C# Fm Bbm G#

I know it sounds absurd. Please tell me who I am.

C# Fm Bbm G#

Cm G# Gm

I said, now watch what you say or they'll be calling you a radical,

Bb G# A°

a liberal, oh fanatical, criminal.

Cm G# Gm

Oh, won't you sign up your name, we'd like to feel you're acceptable,

Bb G# A°

respectable, oh, presentable, a vegetable!

Solo

Eb Eb7+

At night, when all the world's asleep,

Eb7 C# Fm Bbm G#

the questions run too deep for such a simple man

Eb Eb7+

Won't you please, please tell me what we've learned?

Eb7 C# Fm Bbm G#

I know it sounds absurd. Please tell me who I am.

C# Fm Bbm G#

who I am,

C# Fm Bbm G#

who I am,

C# Fm Bbm G#

who I am,
